IF WE WERE DOGS

SOPHIE BLACKALL

Ages 4 – 8
40 Pages
September 2025

Two-time Caldecott Medalist Sophie Blackall's follow up to her bestselling If I Was a Horse explores the challenges of our first friendships through imaginative play.

If we were dogs, what kind would we be? I'd be a big dog! And you'd be little dog. Woof!

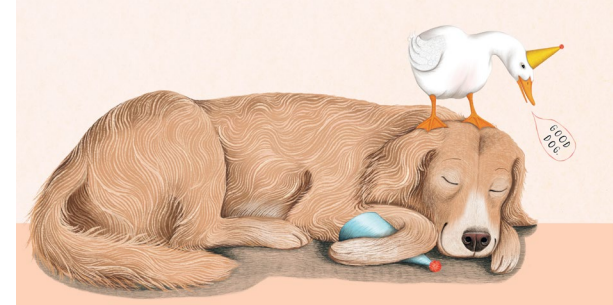

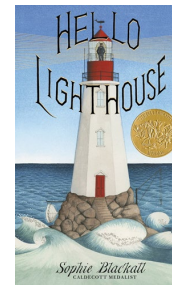

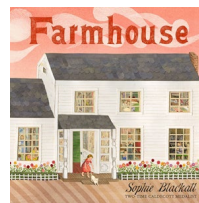

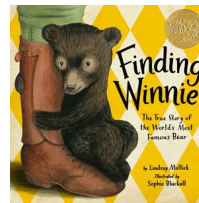

Join two friends as they bark and growl, woof and howl – and maybe even quack – in a romp that makes room for everybody's ideas.

Sophie Blackall unleashes a marvelous game of pretend that explores navigating friendship and celebrates boundless imagination.

Sophie Blackall is the bestselling and two-time Caldecott medal-winning artist behind Finding Winnie: The True Story of the World's Most Famous Bear, Hello Lighthouse and Farmhouse. She is also the proprietor of Milkwood, a creative retreat for children's book makers. She divides her time between Brooklyn and a farm in upstate New York.

I AM A HIGHLY DANGEROUS WARRIOR!

RAQUEL D'APICE, HEATHER FOX

Ages 4 – 8
40 Pages
November 2025

From Emmy award-winning comedian Raquel D'Apice and bestselling illustrator Heather Fox comes a hilarious take on developmental leaps exploring the bravery it takes to tackle the next big thing!

This young warrior is ready. He knows he can defeat the scary, hairy monster just like the big kids. But his wizard guardian keeps pointing out how he's still too young. So what if he still gets blown backward by a gust of wind?! Or still rubs his boogers on the cat? Not having a plan has never stopped him before! And having Blanket by his side may be all he needs to prove his wizard he's a highly dangerous six-year-old.

Raquel D'Apice is a writer and comedian. She won two Emmys as part of the writing team for Last Week Tonight with John Oliver, and is the author and illustrator of the parenting book Welcome to the Club: 100 Parenting Milestones You Never Saw Coming. Raquel loves Boggle and TED talks. She lives in Jersey City with her husband and two children.

Heather Fox is the illustrator of many stories for children including the Llama Destroys the World series, Don't Feed the Coos!, and the Fitz and Cleo books. Heather has a penchant for playing loud instruments and trying new things, but nothing quite so highly dangerous as fighting monsters. She lives in Pennsylvania with her husband and a little French Bulldog named Hugo.

MOON SONG

MICHAELA GOADE

Ages 4 – 8
40 Pages
October 2025

Cuddle up and explore the wonders of a moon-drenched night that sparkles with the natural luminescence that persists through the long, dark, northern winter.

On an island at the edge of a silvery sea, when the moon rises and night falls, a girl spins a story for her worried cousin to help him find comfort in the wintry dark. Moonlight glittering in the forest, bioluminescence sparkling by the shore, northern lights blazing in the sky—in the dark of the night, the whole world sings. Celebrated Tlingit creator Michaela Goade, who brought us a summer's celebration in the Caldecott Honor Award-winning Berry Song, invites us to discover the wonder and comfort of a winter's night through a magnificent Moon Song.

Michaela Goade has been awarded a Caldecott Medal, a Caldecott Honor, and is a NYT Bestselling artist. She is the illustrator of a number of award-winning books, including We Are Water Protectors by Carole Lindstrom and I Sang You Down from the Stars by Tasha Spillett-Sumner. THE TRICKSTER SHADOW

MANGESHIG PAWIS-STECKLEY

Ages 4 – 8
40 Pages
October 2025

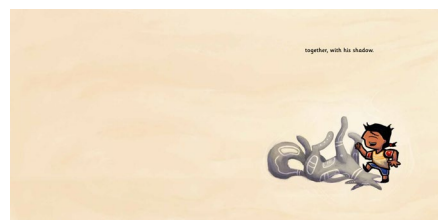

From this acclaimed Ojibwe artist comes a story that offers an empowering universal message about mastering our dark side.

Zoon's shadow is always in his way. It makes a mess of his room, disrupts his class at school, and trips him on the soccer field. Zoon doesn't know what to do! Until he tells his grandmother, who gives him his grandfather's drum. Its rhythm is like a heartbeat. If Zoon can listen to the drum's song, and to his own heart, he may find a way to thrive alongside his shadow.

Pawis-Steckley's striking, graphic art brings to vibrant life both the challenges of controlling our trickster impulses and the luminosity of ancestral and inner wisdom, paving the way for us all to listen to our hearts.

Joshua Mangeshig Pawis-Steckley is an Ojibwe Woodland artist and a member of Wasauksing, First Nation. His fine art focuses on promoting and reclaiming Ojibwe stories and teachings, in a modern interpretation of the Woodland tradition. He resides in Barrie, Ontario, Canada.

RUBY MAPS HER WORLD

JANE YOLEN, DOW PHUMIRUK

Ages 4 – 8
40 Pages
October 2025

Caldecott
Award
Winning Author

It's Ruby's first time drawing a map all by herself. She eagerly grabs her journal and markers and heads outside with her mama close behind. Down the street, under the railroad bridge, and through the park—her mapping has begun. With each step, Ruby draws key elements of her route, carefully adding details as she goes: bikers on the trail, birds in the sky, deer in the meadow. By the end of her special day, Ruby's map is bursting with interesting observations.

This thoughtful picture book spotlights how a child's daily life is filled with small maps—whether inside or outside, on the sidewalk or in the park—and reinforces how those maps help us tell our stories.

Jane Yolen is the author of over four hundred books, including the Caldecott Medal winner Owl Moon and the bestselling How Do Dinosaurs series. She has received many awards, including three Christopher Medals, two Nebula Awards, the Jewish Book Award, and many others.

Dow Phumiruk is the award-winning illustrator of many books, including Counting on Katherine and Her Name Was Mary Katherine. A retired pediatrician with a passion for art, Dow lives in Colorado with her family.

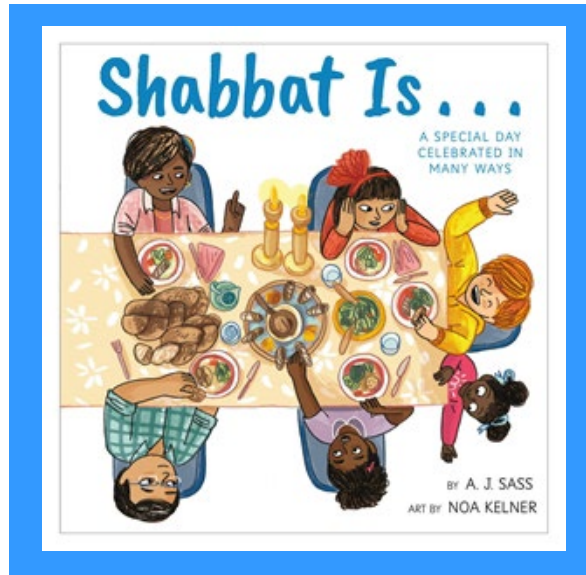

SHABBAT IS...

A. J. SASS-CAO,
NOA KELNER

Ages 3 – 6
40 Pages
September 2025

A heartwarming exploration of the beauty of Shabbat and the diverse fabric of Jewish life, for fans of The Proudest Blue and All Are Welcome.

What does Shabbat mean to you? Is it making a big meal with your relatives on Friday night? Singing songs on Saturday morning? Or maybe it's seeing all your friends after services.

Shabbat can mean different things to different people, even for those who attend the same synagogue! This timeless story by award-winning A. J. Sass explores the countless ways to celebrate the sabbath holiday through the wonderfully diverse fabric of Jewish life and experience.

A. J. Sass-Cao (he/they) is the critically acclaimed author of Just Shy of Ordinary, as well as Ana on the Edge, Camp QUILTBAG, and Ellen Outside the Lines. He splits his time between the San Francisco Bay Area and Northwest Vermont with his husband.

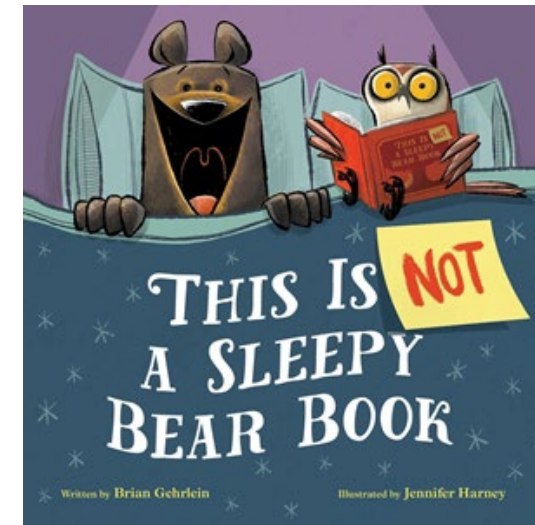

Noa Kelner graduated from the Bezalel Academy of Arts and Design and loves to give stories color and form. She is the cofounder and artistic director of the annual Outline Festival in Jerusalem, which celebrates illustration and creativity. She lives in Jerusalem with her husband and three children. Shabbat Is... is Noa's debut picture book in the United States.

FOR YOUNG READERS

BOLOGNA 2025
Children's Rights Guide

Return to a fiery world of dragon dystopia in this high-flying prequel of New Dragon City that chronicles the beginning of the dragon apocalypse.

Lucas isn't having the best summer. While normally he'd be away at camp, this year he's stuck home, watching over his younger neighbor Noah and mourning the death of his beloved cat. Even going outside is dangerous, thanks to mysterious fires making the air unsafe to breathe. Fires that Noah claims are caused by real life dragons. At first Lucas laughs it off - Noah's dad has always been fond of conspiracy theories. But when the family suddenly flees town and strange rumors start spreading online, Lucas realizes he needs to find out for sure.

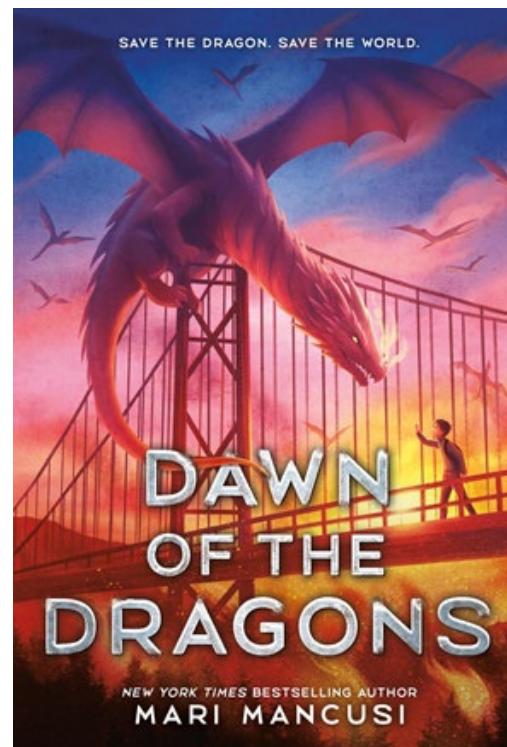

Meanwhile, young Cinder and her dragon herd are just trying to survive in a strange new world. They've found a haven high in the mountains and hope to finally live in peace. But when Cinder suffers a terrible fall, she's not sure she'll live long enough to see it.

Searching for dragons, Lucas finds Cinder, and he can't help but feel sorry for this tiny creature and together they begin to form an unlikely friendship. But a simple misunderstanding between scales and skin is all it takes to spark a worldwide inferno. As the dragon apocalypse looms, can Lucas and Cinder find a way to help keep their families safe?

THE TEAR COLLECTOR

R. M. ROMERO

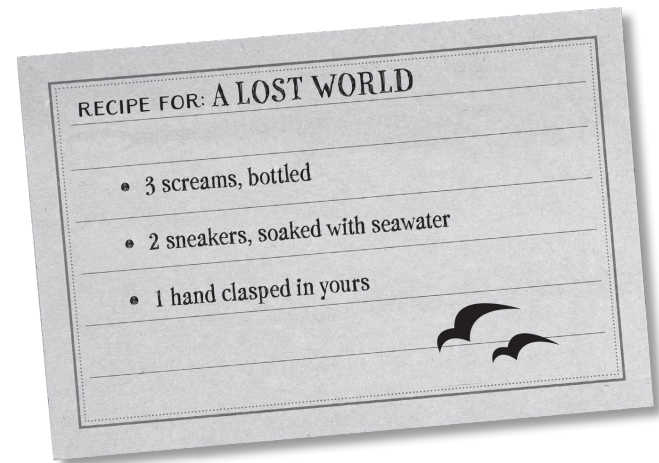

Ages 8 - 12

336 Pages

October 2025

Set after the end of the world, this darkly fantastical climate change tale explores hope, memory, and what really makes a monster.

R.M. Romero is a critically acclaimed Jewish Latina and international bestselling author of fairy tales for children and adults. She is the author of The Dollmaker of Kraków and The Ghosts of Rose Hill, both Sydney Taylor Notable Books; A Warning About Swans; and Death's Country. R.M. Romero lives in Miami Beach with her cat Robin Goodfellow.

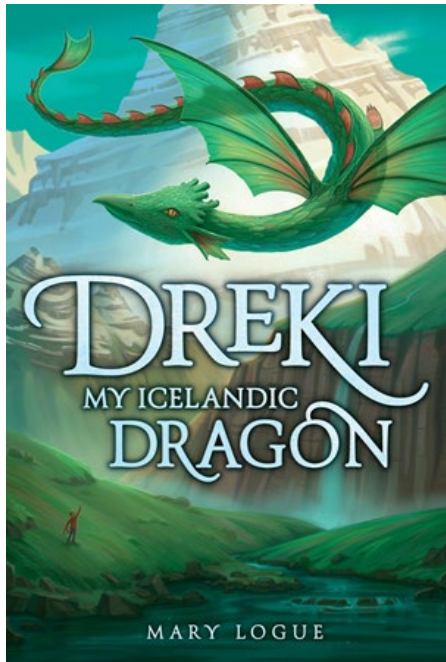

Climate change culminated in the Flood, an enormous wave that wiped out entire countries. Malka and her younger brother Ezra survived and now live with Dr. Jonas Hollman on the Island, the only piece of land left on Earth. Scavenging useful things from the shoreline under the watchful eye of the Island's sinister leader Mr. Gray, Malka and her family get by. Barely.

But an illness called the Sorrow is changing people into monsters when their memories of the Mainland grow too sad...and Ezra is the latest to get sick. Desperate not to lose her brother, Malka throws herself into helping "Uncle" Jonas with his research to find a cure.

Then her family's dismal lives are turned upside down by the mysterious Olivia, who crashes a plane on the beach. More people are out there, she says. The world isn't lost forever. To save Ezra and the other Islanders, Malka will have to uncover the secrets of her flooded world—and the lies even the people she loves have told her about the true nature of the Sorrow.

R.M. Romero tackles our fear and anxiety surrounding climate change and weaves it through with hope in this beautifully told adventure that will resonate with readers young and old.

DREKI: MY ICELANDIC DRAGON

MARY LOGUE

Ages 9 – 12
256 Pages
October 2025

A boy, his grandfather, and a baby dragon set off on an international adventure that takes them from Minnesota to Iceland in this middle grade urban fantasy perfect for fans of When You Trap a Tiger and How To Train Your Dragon.

Johan is off to visit his Grandpa Siggy—a charismatic, impetuous Icelander with a big secret: he took a dragon egg with him when he immigrated to America from Iceland. As fate would have it, Dreki hatched just a few hours after Johan was born, magically linking the two. But Dreki was kept a secret. Now, many years later, the time has come for Dreki to journey home, and for Johan to discover his ancestry through a life-changing trip to Iceland. But the clock is ticking as both Siggy and Dreki's health is in jeopardy. It's up to Johan to make sure both of them get home safely and for the secret of Dreki to remain.

Mary Logue is a New York Times bestselling author of over thirty books, including adult mysteries, poetry, non-fiction, and many books for children. Her picture book, Sleep Like a Tiger, won a Caldecott Honor and a Charlotte Zolotow Honor. She lives with her partner, writer Pete Hautman, in Golden Valley, Minnesota, and Stockholm, Wisconsin.

Ages 8 – 12
288 Pages
September 2025

For fans of Amari and the Night Brothers and The Okay Witch comes a hilarious cozy fantasy about the adventures of a girl who discovers she descends from a powerful witch coven.

Becca Slugg is bored. It's the end of summer and it feels like she's done nothing. But Becca's wish for anything to happen backfires when her mom receives an unwelcome visit from her sister Malatrice. While hiding, Becca overhears that she is the niece of one of the most powerful witches in the country – and the daughter of a powerless one. When her mom refuses to help Malatrice take control of the family throne, Becca is left with a mindless puppet for a mother and a whole lot of questions.

With the help of Natalya, her mother's tarantula familiar, and Oddvar, a friendly troll living in the motel's ice machine, a determined Becca sets out to uncover her own magical abilities and find the ingredients for a potion that will cure her mother. Besides, how hard can it be to find mermaid eggs, troll teeth, and the most precious possession of a Witch Queen?

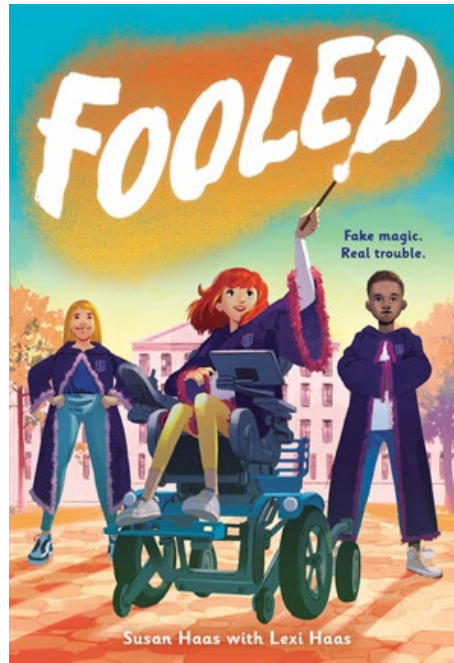

Steph Cherrywell is an author and librarian in the Milwaukee area. Their previous works include the science fiction middle grade Unboxing Libby and several graphic novels and games for older audiences. Steph's favorite things are books, comics, video games, biking, and exploring. They're not a witch, but they do play one named Radish in their weekly D&D game.

SUSAN HAAS, LEXI HAAS

Ages 8 – 12
272 Pages
October 2025

This fresh and imaginative novel from co-authors of The Year of the Buttered Cat shines a spotlight on the way the school system often fails students with disabilities—while showcasing the power of those very students to make positive change.

Magic-obsessed, wheelchair-user Lil Evers is ready to start sixth grade—but instead of the wizarding academy of her dreams, she's heading for the worst junior high in her district. Trying to make the best of it, Lil and her best friend Scoot start roleplaying their own school of magic in their Exceptional Children's class—but a chance encounter with bullies leads the whole student body to believe there's an actual school of magic in the special education room. When the EC's kids' good luck charms seemingly begin to work for real, it's clear that there's someone lurking who doesn't actually want them to work. Can Lil let go of her fantasy world to find her voice—and embrace her real school—before Willow Street Middle falls victim to an evil plan?

Susan and Lexi Haas are a mother and daughter duo and the authors of The Year of the Buttered Cat. Lexi has a rare and severe form of cerebral palsy. While she can't walk or talk, she has an impressive memory, a keen sense of humor, and an invincible spirit. Recognizing her daughter's gift for words, Susan began writing with Lexi to help foster independence and develop communication, but soon learned that Lexi's fresh perspective needed to be shared with others. In addition to writing together, Susan and Lexi also enjoy presenting to schools and organizations around the world, helping others learn about disability from a first-person narrative. They live in Charlotte, NC.

Keezy Young is a queer comic artist, writer, and illustrator from the Pacific Northwest, currently living in Seattle, WA. They grew up drawing on their walls, stealing a few extra chapters by nightlight after bedtime, making graveyards for lost animals in the forest with their brother and sister, and adding monsters and flowers to the margins of every homework assignment. Today, Keezy creates young adult graphic novels and short comics. Their stories are eerie, and often dark, but almost always hopeful at their core.

In this lush and romantic queer horror graphic novel, a troubled teen disappears from his small town—sending his loved ones on a paranormal journey to bring him home.

Noah is heartbroken. He returns from Bible camp to find that Alex, his secret boyfriend, has had a breakdown and disappeared. He wishes more than anything that he hadn't left that day.

Sky is determined. She'll stop at nothing to find her childhood friend, even if it means alienating the people she loves.

Izzy is ashamed. She knew something weird was going on with Alex, and she didn't say anything to her boyfriend, Jamie—Alex's twin brother. If she had, would Alex still be here?

Jamie is angry. Angry at Alex for being gone, angry at himself for not noticing something was wrong, and angry at his long-dead mother, Desdemona, who had problems of her own.

But what if there was something more to Desdemona's demons? Why is Jamie seeing her ghost? And can he get past his hatred of her if it means finding out what happened to his brother?

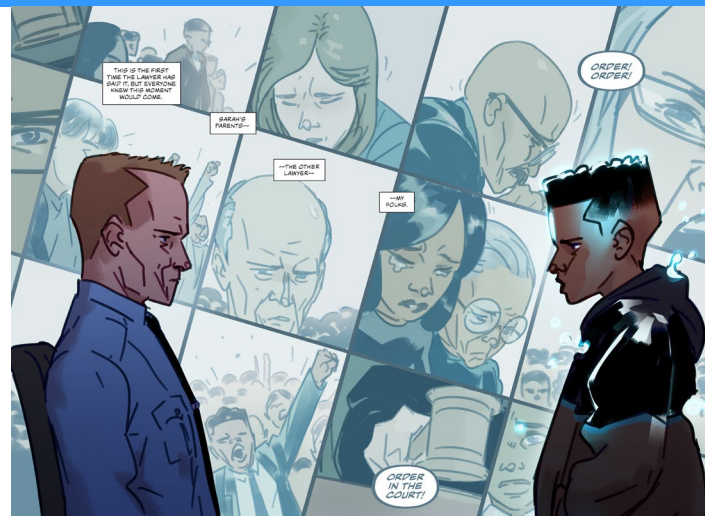

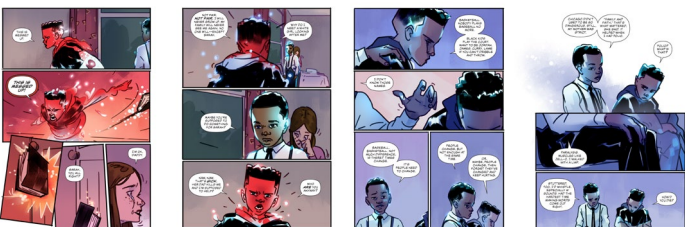

GHOST BOYS: THE GRAPHIC NOVEL

December 2025

Twelve-year-old Jerome is shot by a police officer who mistakes his toy gun for a real threat. As a ghost, he observes the devastation that is unleashed on his family and community in the wake of this unjust and brutal killing. Soon Jerome meets another ghost: Emmett Till, a boy from a very different time but similar circumstances. Jerome also meets Sarah, the daughter of the police officer, who grapples with her father's actions.

Now gorgeously rendered as a graphic novel with gripping artwork from Setor Fiadzigbey, Ghost Boys once again deftly explores the historical and sociopolitical layers involved in how children and families face the complexities of today's world—and how one boy, in particular, comes to understand American Blackness in the aftermath of his own death.

Can Millie solve the puzzle of fate in time to save her family?

Twelve-year-old Milligent Grave's family is in trouble. Her mom has sunk all their money into a feng-shui-for-fish business that has no customers. Her dad is having some kind of mid-life crisis and quit his job. Her little sister is annoying and sometimes gross. They've even recently had to move from their house to an apartment. Something has to change, but no one else seems to see the problems. When fate (or, actually, the three Fates, who also happen to be Millie's landlords) lead Millie to discover a room of puzzles representing people's lives, she immediately starts fixing the imperfections in everyone she knows.

And if some pieces don't fit right? Eh... And if there are new mysterious cracks in the universe in the exact shape of those pieces that a stray dogwalker or two has fallen through? That's not a problem, right? Ok, maybe it is. But Millie is sure if she just makes a few more tiny tweaks, her rearrangements will be perfect.

What could go wrong? It's not like literally all of reality is about to unravel. Right?Right?

Not all fairy tales end happily ever after in this Cinderella-meets-Chinese-fairytale-inspired fantasy romance—the first in a breathtaking new series by the bestselling author of Daughter of the Moon Goddess!

Life in the Iron Mountains is harsh and unforgiving. After the death of her beloved uncle, Yining has survived by becoming a skilled thief and an even better liar. When she acquires an enchanted ring that holds the key to a new life, it is stolen by her grasping step-aunt, and Yining must venture into the imperial heart of the kingdom to seize it back.

Amid the grandeur of the palace, Yining catches the eye of the ruthless and ambitious prince, who tempts her with a world she's never imagined. But nothing is as it seems, for she's soon trapped in a tangle of power, treachery, and greed—her only ally the cunning advisor from a rival court who keeps dangerous secrets of his own. To break free, she must unravel the mystery of her past and fight for a future that both frightens and calls to her.

Sue Lynn Tan Sue Lynn Tan is the award-winning author of Daughter of the Moon Goddess and Heart of the Sun Warrior, a romantic fantasy duology inspired by the legend of Chang'e, the Chinese moon goddess. The breathtaking sequel to the bestselling Immortal Dark!

Kidan Adane has finally embraced her darkness. She's killed without remorse, lied, and broken Uxlay University's most sacred law by inviting elusive rogue vampires, the Nefrasi, into Uxlay. Trapped with the violently unstable vampire, Samson, and reeling from her sister's return, Kidan wields her anger like a weapon. She vows to master her house and protect the sacred artifact hidden inside, even if it means forging an alliance with Samson.

A dangerous new philosophical text seems to hold the answers and promises the very thing Kidan has lost: control. Even as the dark pages consume her, Kidan knows no soul at Uxlay is trustworthy—least of all Susenyos. For Kidan and Susenyos, the lines of loathing and lust may blur, but the quest for power rules them both. And neither is willing to surrender.

As devastating secrets surface from the past, Kidan and her sister must finally confront each other and take their places in the looming war.

October 2025

Jennifer's Body meets Heartstopper in this terrifying, tender, and biting hilariously supernatural horror about a boy who must save his best friend from a demon that wants to steal his heart—literally.

Ren says he's in love, but Colin knows better. Sure, he can't remember much about how it all began. But he remembers dancing at a club he and Ren were too young to dance in. He remembers the boys who harassed them on their way home. He remembers a ghost emerging from the trees, and a white hand reaching through a thick fog. What Colin can't remember is what happened next. Only two things are clear to him: Ren is different now, and the new guy vying for his heart is not who he claims to be.

With the help of two unlikely allies and a cranky old medium, Colin must learn to conquer his self-doubt and save his best friend from a love that could cost him his life.

Equal parts campy and bewitching, Corey Liu's debut YA novel explores predation, isolation, and what happens when a childhood dream of fairytale romance turns into a deadly nightmare.

Corey Liu is a writer based in Vancouver. He has written for television shows like Family Law, Pinecone & Pony, and Davey and Jonesie's Locker. Most recently, he was a co-executive producer of the Kpop series Gangnam Project. He received an MA in Children's Literature from UBC, where he met some of his best friends.

THE WEIRDIES

MICHAEL BUCKLEY,
FORREST BURDETT

Ages 8 - 12
288 Pages
June 2025

Ten-year-old triplets Barnacle, Melancholy, and Garlic Weirdie grew up in a town plagued by relentless meteor showers. Their home,

Deadeye Manor, is a bleak mansion filled with hundreds of eccentric houseguests and one set of emotionally distant (some would say sociopathic) parents. When the entire group of grown-ups goes on vacation, forgetting to bring the children, the three siblings are sent to Our Lady of the Perpetual Side-Eye Orphanage, where they meet Miss Emily, a sweet and loving caseworker who attempts to smooth their rough edges. The triplets, however, are truly weird — causing chaos and mayhem in their adoptive home on picture-perfect Sunshine Circle.

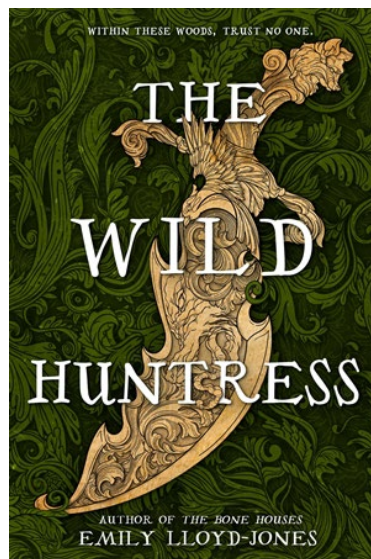

Will the Weirdies and Miss Emily manage to become the family they all desperately need, or will it end in disaster for all of them?

Michael Buckley is The New York Times bestselling author of The Sisters Grimm series and NERDS. His other works are the YA trilogy Undertow, the sci-fi middle grade trilogy Finn and the Intergalactic Lunchbox, Kel Gilligan's Daredevil Stuntshow, Lenny the Lobster Can't Stay for Dinner, cowritten by his son, Finn Buckley, and the Audible Original series The Weirdies, narrated by Kate Winslet.

Dive into this lush fantasy, set in the same world as The Drowned Woods and The Bone Houses—perfect for fans of Holly Black and Erin A. Craig.

Every five years, two kingdoms take part in a Wild Hunt and hundreds gamble their lives to participate—all vying for the Hunt's life-changing prize: a magical wish granted by the Otherking.

BRANWEN possesses a gift no other human has: the ability to see and slay monsters. She's desperate to cure her mother's sickness, and the Wild Hunt is her only option. GWYDION is the least impressive of his magically-talented family, but with his ability to control plants and his sleight of hand, he'll do whatever it takes to keep his cruel older brother from becoming a tyrant. PRYDERI is prince-born and monster-raised. Deep down, the royal crown doesn't interest him—all he wants is to know where he belongs.

If they band together against the monstrous creatures within the woods, they have a chance to win. But, then again, nothing is guaranteed when all is fair in love and the Hunt.

Emily Lloyd Jones grew up in rural Oregon and currently resides in Northern California, where she enjoys wandering in redwood forests. Her YA novels include Illusive, Deceptive, The Hearts We Sold, The Bone Houses, and the The Drowned Woods.

Zodiac Academy meets Fourth Wing in this fast-paced and romantic debut, in which a teenage girl must survive ruthless werewolves, a glittering court, and deadly politics to exact revenge on the monsters who killed her best friend.

The night Vanessa Hart's best friend is brutally slaughtered by wolves, her life is changed forever. When her father finds Vanessa holding Celeste's dead body and sporting a nasty bite of her own, he doesn't bring her to a hospital—he hands her over to the very creatures responsible.

But these are no ordinary wolves...They're werewolves. And Vanessa's life now belongs to the treacherous Wolf Queen's Court.

A prisoner, Vanessa is confined to the enchanted Castle Severi, with only hatred for the wolves and nightmarish memories of Celeste's death to keep her company. But when—finally—she transforms into a werewolf, it's with the glowing purple eyes of an Alpha. Vanessa can either swear her life to the Court or die in the agony of a lone wolf.

Ushered into a world where flowering vines grow through the walls, gifts are bestowed by the stars, and a claw can break through skin as easily as silk, Vanessa must find a way to seek the vengeance she craves even as she finds herself mesmerized by the golden prince Sinclair Severi, who steals her heart though he is promised to her nemesis, and his brooding, disgraced cousin, Calix, whose smoldering gaze hides even darker secrets.

Immersed in the magic of werewolf society, Vanessa learns its malevolence goes beyond a single murderer in a midnight forest. The Court is at war, and she may simply be a pawn in its deadly game.

384 Pages

May 2025

Already one of the most acclaimed novels of 2025, this extraordinary story explores young women's freedom and rage as Talia plots her way back to her hidden mountaintop home after her mother's arrest for murder.

Nova Ren Suma is the author of the #1 NYT bestselling The Walls Around Us and A Room Away from the Wolves, which were both finalists for the Edgar Award. She also wrote Imaginary Girls and 17 & Gone and co-edited the story & craft anthology FORESHADOW: Stories to Celebrate the Magic of Reading & Writing YA. She has an MFA in fiction from Columbia University and has taught creative writing at Columbia University, the University of Pennsylvania, and Vermont College of Fine Arts. Originally from the Hudson Valley, she spent most of her adult life in New York City and now lives in Philadelphia.

The mist filled my lungs, peppery and also sweet, and momentum pushed me forward. Giddy, I dropped into a bed of moss, soft and slick in spots, and rolled in it, howled for no reason, felt close to an understanding of some kind, as if an eye inside me was peeling open. It was the first full moon after I turned thirteen, and I knew that whatever happened in this next stretch of hours would change me forever after.

I wasn't wrong.

Three years ago, Talia lived happily in the ruins of the Neves, a once-grand hotel in the wilds of the Catskill Mountains, with her mother Pola and their community of like-minded women. Some came to the Neves to escape cruel men, others to hide from the law, but all found safety and connection in their haven high above civilization, cloaked by a mysterious mist that kept intruders away. But as their numbers grew, complications followed, and everything came crashing down the night electric lights pierced the forest. Uniformed men arrested Pola, calling her a murderer and a fugitive, and Talia was taken away.

Now sixteen, Talia has been forced to live with family she barely knows and fit into a world scarred by misogyny, capitalism, disconnection from nature . . . everything the women of the Neves stood against. She has one goal: to return to the Neves. But as Talia awaits a signal from her mother, questions arise. Who betrayed her community, and what is she avoiding about her own role in its collapse? Is it truly magic that keeps the hotel so hidden? And what does it mean to embrace being her mother's daughter? With the help of an unexpected ally, Talia must find her way to answers, face a mother who's often kept her at arm's length, and try to reach the refuge she lost—if the mist hasn't swallowed her path home.

Fierce and lyrical, unsettling and tender, Wake the Wild Creatures marks the return of one of the most distinctive voices in YA literature.
